THE FACULTY SENATE
Minutes of September 23, 1999 (rescheduled from September 16)

Present: S. Borkowski, J. Brogan, J. Butler, E. Cogan, S. DeTurk, P. Heinzer, D. Robison, J. Seydow, D. Smith, J. Smither, S. Stickel, T. Straub, J. Welsh, S. Wiley

Excused: D. Falcone, C. Freeman, L. Miller, M. Moreau, L. Otten, M. Soven, M. Watson

Guests: B. Amster, L. Collins, M.B. Haas, S. O'Brien

The meeting was called to order at 2:36PM.

The minutes for the morning session for the May 17, 1999 meeting were approved as written 8-0-3. The minutes for the afternoon session of the same day were unanimously approved as written.

Jeannie Welsh was appointed Senate Parliamentarian for the 1999-2000 academic year.

The draft Mediation and Grievance Procedures were presented to the Senate for discussion. This draft is the result of several meetings during the summer of the prior and current Executive Committees. After discussion, the Senate accepted an amended draft unanimously. It will be presented to the University Council meeting in October for approval, with the request that it be placed in the faculty section of the University Handbook.

The Senators signed a letter (forwarded by Cherylyn Rush) to the ex-student who left the University because of several incidents of racial harassment. Several ideas for combating the larger issue of harassment of any kind were discussed. Several recommendations were deferred as it was agreed that the Senate will not act alone, but as part of a larger University effort. David Smith, the chair of the Student Affairs and Campus Life Committee, will follow-up on this matter with his committee and Joe Cicala, Dean of Student Affairs.

The Senate then discussed the Dean of Arts and Sciences' request for a non-tenure track position for the Director of the MA in Bilingual/Bicultural Studies. After discussion, the Senate requested that the position description be rewritten to revert to a tenure track position after a period of time if the program is deemed a success. The motion that the Executive Committee express the reservations of the Senate to the Provost about the way the position is currently presented carried with a vote of 12 -0-1.

The Senate President then provided an update from the September 13 University Council meeting. Some Senators expressed their continuing concern at the lack of an updated University handbook for current and new faculty. One Senator voiced concern about the 2000-2001 academic calendar. The Senate agreed that any faculty with concerns or suggestions about the upcoming University calendar should direct their comments to Sam Wiley.

Appointments to the Judicial Committee and the Urban Center were approved.

The senate adjourned at 4:25PM. Open forum discussion with several senators ensued until 5:00 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Susan C. Borkowski

Academic Affairs Committee
Minutes of the meeting on September 15, 1999

Present: Joseph Cicala, Richard Goedkoop, Annie Hounsokou, Prafulla Joglekar, Gerald Johnson, Abby Laurich, Barbara Millard, Jacqueline Pastis, William Price, Steph Rosak, Samuel Wiley, Zane Wolf

- Provost Nigro welcomed the new members of committee and asked each committee member to introduce himself/ herself.
- Provost Nigro asked experienced members to review what the Academic Affairs Committee is all about. It was stated that the Academic Affairs Committee is an advisory committee to the Provost on all academic matters such as introduction of new programs, review and evaluation of existing programs, outcomes assessment, academic calendar, scheduling of courses, etc.
- Minutes of the Committee's meetings on May 26, 1999 and on August 24, 1999 were approved by a consensus vote of the members present at those meetings. The members who were absent at those meetings absented from the voting.
- The Provost reported that as planned at the August 24, 1999 meeting of the committee, a Scheduling Task Force was created and a report from that Task Force would be forthcoming soon for the committee's action.
- Program review of the various clusters in Arts and Sciences was deferred until the next meeting since it was not clear if all the reviews were in. The term of committee service for some of the reviewers had ended and it was necessary to see that their reports were in before completing this agenda.
- Next, the committee turned to the major agenda of the day, namely the academic calendars for years 2000-01 and 2001-02, proposed by Assistant Provost Johnson. Johnson explained his rationale for the proposal. In his proposal the Spring semester of a calendar year had more number of workdays than the Fall semester. Johnson explained that this is because, in his experience, typically, a Spring semester has more number of weather related cancellation of classes than a Fall semester.

Dean Cicala suggested that insofar as the proposed calendars followed the model of the actual calendars for 1998-99 and 1999-2000 academic years, it was clearly a workable model. He suggested that most students liked this model. However, he alerted the committee that the proposed Monday start of classes in Spring 2002 meant that the University (i.e., Residence Halls, Registrar's office, etc.) would have to be open over the weekend prior to that Monday.

Members of the committee raised another concern about the proposed Spring semester calendar for the two academic years. It seems that compared to the traditional calendar at La Salle (1997-98 and before which allowed graduation on Mothers' Day), the proposed calendar has one extra week. It was suggested that this extra week may not be necessary to fulfill the Pennsylvania State guideline of 700 minutes of in-class contact time for each undergraduate credit, or to fulfill the relevant requirements of government funded financial aid programs.

Another major issue with the proposed calendar was that in every semester there were one or two less number of Mondays compared to other days of the week. This was inevitable because many of the planned holidays (e.g., Martin Luther King day, All President's day, etc.) in United States are on a specific Monday of a specific month. While this was not seen as a major problem for the day undergraduate programs, it was seen as a serious problem for graduate programs that typically meet one night a week, and for the evening undergraduate programs that meet two nights a week.

Two proposed solutions to this problem were:

- End the classes of semester on Monday (rather than a Friday) and have examinations begin on the Tuesday. However, concerns were raised whether students would want a study day before the examination period and whether a reasonable roster could be developed for a four-day examination week.
- Plan and announce well in advance that all Monday night classes are 15 minutes (?) longer.

While it was agreed that these concerns and suggestions should be explored further, it was also clear that any further deliberation on the calendar issue required the input of all the relevant constituencies (e.g., department chairs, faculty, students, graduate program directors, registrar's office, Dean of Student's office, etc.) who may be affected by the decision. It was clear that the Scheduling Task Force's recommendations might also have important implications for the calendar issues. It was agreed that inputs from these various constituencies are obtained before the Academic Affairs Committee finalizes the calendars.

- The meeting adjourned at 3:55 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Prafulla Joglekar

Funding is available for City As Classroom activities for the Spring, 2000, semester. Applications will be accepted until Wednesday, November 10. An application form is attached to this memo.

The Council of Deans has adopted the following guidelines for review of City As Classroom funding applications:

Goal: to facilitate the use of the resources of the Greater Philadelphia Metropolitan area in the educational experience of students.

Guidelines for funding evaluation:

1. Priority will be given to funding for undergraduate classes.
2. Priority will be given to funding for activities that will not be available in future semesters (e.g., a special exhibit at a museum, a concert or play and so forth).
3. Priority will be given to discrete events rather than underwriting continuing costs of student participation in activities required by a course.
4. The number of participants can be given priority in decisions on funding.
5. Funding of admission costs will be limited to $12.00 per person.
6. When transportation is involved, the first choice is University-owned vehicles. If that is not feasible, rental must be arranged through the University's Purchasing Office.

RE: Academic Calendars for 2000-2001 and 2001-2002

The Academic Affairs Committee is considering the basic dates outlined on the following pages for the next two academic years. The Committee believes that establishing calendars for two years in advance will allow for more effective planning for departments of the University that do have to schedule operations well in advance.

The Committee requests your assistance in its review of the calendars. Please send your comments and suggestions to me by regular or e-mail. The Committee's next meeting is November 3, and I would appreciate receiving your messages by November 1, to allow time to prepare them for the Committee before the November 3 meeting.

Thank you.

Athletics Committee Meeting
September 21, 1999 -12:30 PM
Hayman Center Conference Room

Attendance: Dr. George Shalhoub (Chair), Mr. Joseph Cloran,
Mr. John French, Mr. Kenneth Hager,
Dr. Kay Kinsey, Ms. Kathi McNichol,
Dr. Robert Shurina, Dr. Kathy Szabat,
Thomas Brennan AD - (ex-officio).

Excused: Rev. David Beebe, Dr. John Carabello,
Dr. Annette O'Connor, Dr. Lynne Texter.

* * * * *

Dr. Shalhoub called the meeting to order.

Dr. Brennan distributed an agenda. He reviewed 1998/1999 highlights; these are also going to be published in a promotional piece. They include: Facilities upgrades, full time coaches to improve our equity position, womens' participation is up, etc. The academic achievements include 85% graduation rate (ten year average), athletes have a 2.88 GPA with 160 of them at 3.0+ in their GPA, the athletic graduation rate is higher than the non-athlete graduation rate. Dr. Brennan reported that the mens' basketball academic performance is a challenge, requires improvement, and is under his review.

The subcommittees of the Athletics Committee (AC) will be proceeding with their work. The Academic/Student Support Program Com. consists of Dr. Shalhoub (Chair), Ms. Kathi McNichol, Jack French, and Ken Hager. The members of the Compliance/Rules Education Com. now include new members Drs. Robert Shurina (Chair), Kathy Szabat, and Kay Kinsey, along with Joe Cloran and Jack French.

The main order of business of electing the new Chair was addressed. Dr. Shalhoub spoke of the significant time for coordination/communication required in directing the AC's business. The faculty members then considered Ms. Kathi McNichol and asked her if she would accept the leadership responsibility. Dr. Shalhoub nominated her, Dr. Shurina seconded the nomination, and the members present voted 7-0-0 to elect her Chair.

She acknowledged the new role. Ms. McNichol also brings chair experience from a prior term on the AC, and stated she would make the time available in her schedule. She asked the members to thank Dr. Shalhoub for his efforts as Chair, acknowledge his work, including setting up the two sub-committees, etc. Dr. Shalhoub will continue as Chair of the Academic/Student Support Program Com.

The new Chair expressed her desire to renew the practice of having student athletes visit with the AC throughout the academic year. In the past, these interviews with both athletes and coaches provided in-depth and vital contact and information for the AC members.

The Chair asked the faculty members to advise her of their schedules so she can call meetings for maximum attendance. The alumni representatives (all retired) will generally be available.

The following will be contacted: Rev. Beebe as the new Administration rep; the ARC and SGA are now organizing and are expected to name student reps; either Dr. Carabello or another Explorer Club rep.

Two suggestions on scheduling were outlined: pick dates now for the remainder of the academic year, and publish them so they can be put on everyone's schedule and avoid scheduling on an impromptu basis; when possible, schedule sub-committee meetings as preliminary to the regular AC times, allowing for fewer, but possibly lengthier meetings.

The AC considers and decides on some matters which require confidentiality. However, a condensed version of the minutes will be prepared for the Campus News as one way of informing faculty and student constituent groups. Alumni reps advise their group at the Alumni Board of Director meetings.

A number of Faculty reps had to leave to keep their schedules.

Dr. Brennan distributed the current Athletic Department Directory listing the personnel in the various offices, and coaches for each sport program.

He then completed his review of the handout listing Special Activities for the 1999/2000 Academic year. Two significant items are: Campus Pals (Big Brothers/Big Sisters) a community outreach effort - LaSalle is one of 50 NCAA schools participating in this pilot program; Staff development/training - AC members may also be included in this developing effort.

The date for the next meeting will be scheduled by the Chair.
Ms. McNichol will secure a location and advise the members.
Members will be sent copies of the minutes.

An Interactive Workshop
Thursday, October 28
3:30 - 5:00 p.m.

The Art Museum--Lower Level--Olney Hall

Spend an afternoon at our own University Art Museum with Sabrina DeTurk, Jim Butler, and Joe Dougherty. You don't have to leave campus to see a collection of European and American Art that spans the Middle Ages to the Twentieth Century as well as Japanese prints, Indian miniatures and African tribal art.

Over the years, faculty across the University have used the resources of the museum to enrich their teaching. The workshop will show you ways to incorporate the Art Museum resources into your classroom. If you've never visited the museum, the workshop can be your introduction. If the museum is an "old friend", come explore new ways of looking at it as a teaching resource.

Sponsored by the Teaching and Learning Center

Due to space constraints, workshop enrollment must be limited to 20 participants. Please return the attached form to Jeannie Welsh Box 332, email welsh@lasalle.edu, or phone x 1883 if you plan to attend.

I plan to attend the October 28 workshop at the Art Museum.
